

WAR NOISES

Still cheerily, we will meet
Our banner bright and true.
The cause of His low Word of Life,
Ourselves, the cause of God.

One result of the Staff-Council will be the issuing to every soldier of the Army rules, and articles of war, and also what the S.A. does, and does not do, about sanitation. Every soldier too in the Dominion will at an early date be publicly sworn in under the flag.

The officers despatched for British Columbia were Capt. Hackett and Dawson, with a Cadet.

A detachment left Headquarters for Winnipeg on the 24th, ult., namely Capt. Ham, Louis Corbett, Coffin, Messer, Lieut. Arlett, and Lieut. McDavid.

Broken heads at Quebec, do not deter volunteers. Capt. de May, and Cadet Crockett and Bacon have left for the latter's Training Home in that city.

Everybody will be glad to know that the riot and the injuries received by the cadets at Quebec, were not nearly so bad as some of the public journals for reasons, best known to themselves, made them out to be.

The Jubilee volume has caused a great pressure of work at Headquarters, and all the city Cadets had to be called in to help. We are trusting that a lot of help will be required to count the money when it comes in, it should be so.

Will everyone pray for Capt. Aggie Cowan, who is still confined to her bed at the "Home of Rest."

Another attempt has been made to fire Kingston Barracks, it is very properly supposed that the devil had a hand in it.

There has been an addition to the uniform department, and we must congratulate Capt. and Mrs. Watson, on the arrival of a promising Cadet.

Some very encouraging intelligence was received from our Canadians in Hindostan by the last mail, all are well and doing better—winning.

Was Scarce.

A Receipt for Backsliding.

It is suggested that the life-story of Brother N—, of D—, is likely to prove a blessing, if received in the War Cry.

His mother was a pious woman, but his father drank and encouraged his son to do likewise. Our brother made very poor use of his educational opportunities. He generally played the truant, but when he did reach the school as much time as possible was spent in fighting his mates and upsetting the whole school. The school master once punished him by making him hold both his hands up to the ceiling with a number of chains in each. Michael was his delight, robbing gardens, tying cats to doors, runaway driving etc.

He once walked to D—, and obtained work, but soon lost it through fighting. He then tramped back to D—, and the journey taking three days and three nights. His only drink was spent on meat for his terrier, and he himself lived on berries picked from the bushes as he went along. Reaching home he was so footsore that he could not put his boots on again until two weeks after.

His next stay was in a cell in the machine, but his mother bought him out. He then went to Y—, and was continually busy in row and fight.

He engaged in a prize fight for a wage of $30, which he won after an hour and a quarter's struggle with his antagonist. The money was spent in drink.

He then bought a fighting dog for $5, and was soon afterwards bitten on the neck. He dog killed his other on the spot.

Sundays were invariably spent in racing and fighting, and he was often wheeled home on a truck (loosely drunk). He had married, and his poor wife and children had a pitiable time of it. His home being a awful pattern drunk and a home.

When at work, a mate was continually talking to him about his soul, and at last he promised that he would attend a meeting. He kept his promise and also got converted, which was better still.

For eight years his changed life was exhibited in colour and goldsmith until some religious professors persuaded him to have a glass as there was "no harm in it." This caused his total backsliding, and he became worse than ever before.

After drinking heavily one Saturday night, he decided to join the Army Barracks; turning himself, he entered, and although in drink he was taken hold of by the Spirit of God, and he became a soldier.

He is now a Salvation Soldier, and means by the grace of God to fight the cross till death.

Conscience, don't forget the danger there is in just one sip of the accursed cup. Beware of one glass.

THREE CAPS OF THREE SIZES.

WHICH FITS YOU?

I. He married. The new Captain had come to for some straight dealing on his lid, got married, and led the Army. He gave his testimony in the Army. "Thank God, I am still saved, and though I have left the Army I can serve God as well out of it as in it." Why did he come in then?

The truth is, he had been made to feel in the Army that there was no agreement between the "Temple of God and the world, and rather than give up his goal of duty, he would give up his chance of usefulness amongst a people who had now the means of saving him from a life of drunkenness and sin. Some people come the bridge that carries them over.

II. To look at her face as she sat in the meeting, and to listen to her unfeigned experience, one would not be far from impressed with the fact that there was no happiness in religion. At one time nearly all her family were converted to God, but one by one the good seed, backslid, went into sin, and now when you speak to them about Salvation they ridicule the idea of ever becoming Christians. Why, how is it also seems to have no joy in her life, and all her children have backslidden? Perhaps this is the reason. The mother who looks an awfully sanctimonious in the meetings were gathered her children for family prayers, she often got impatient of going to the dance; if she was in fact there was no religion in the home. No wonder the children backslid; as the twig is bent the tree is inclined, and prayerless parents will bring up godless children.

III. She was very proud, fond of dress, liked the dance, delighted going to church, and loved the world. She came to the Army, got converted, then converted, and all at last converted; left boots on again until two weeks after. His next stay was in a cell in the machine, but his mother bought him out. He then went to Y—, and was continually busy in row and fight.

He engaged in a prize fight for a wage of $30, which he won after an hour and a quarter's struggle with his antagonist. The money was spent in drink.

He then bought a fighting dog for $5, and was soon afterwards bitten on the neck. He dog killed his other on the spot.

look the place of uniforms. Hallelujah! on the head appeared a fashionable hat, trimmed with feathers. Was Car selling disreputable visiting the stick left undone; does not now come to the platform. Does not show as a woman professing godliness, but says she's still saved.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." Be ye not unceasingly asked together with unbelievers, though they do profess to be good.

DON'T FORGET THE JUBILEE OFFERING On Sunday.

"The Disciple is not above his Lord"

For are the tears of love his heart, Unpolluted by his weary head; By day he wrought, by night he prayed.

His way was paved with love and tears.

The sacred narrative of His devoted life has been read in public worship, family prayers, and private devotions, time without number; tears have oftentimes started at the sacrifice, and wondrous adoration been experienced; gratitude for Salvation bought at such price has thrilled and filled the heart; but where, in the majority of cases, may be found the practical outcome of it all? Where the parallel, though necessarily diminutive, sacrifice and love? Where the desire of the servant to be even as his Master? Where the equal readiness to suffer for a fallen humanity?

His lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

remembering that thousands of men, women and children were perishing, he lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

remembering that thousands of men, women and children were perishing, he lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

remembering that thousands of men, women and children were perishing, he lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

remembering that thousands of men, women and children were perishing, he lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

remembering that thousands of men, women and children were perishing, he lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

remembering that thousands of men, women and children were perishing, he lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

remembering that thousands of men, women and children were perishing, he lived not in ease, luxury or comfort, but was poor to make many rich; he indulged not his body in repose or preservation, but

ALL ROUND.

The barracks at Drayton is going up nicely, and Captain Fletcher carries the land beautifully. He finds it is good exercise this warm weather, and keeps him from getting sick.

The devil has a marked battery in Montreal, in a shoe factory that overlooks the building of the new barracks. From this battery a continual stream of workers on the building. The other day a piece of iron 2 feet in weight landed in a dinner-cup, giving the owner's head a very close shave.

Our knee-drill is turning out some regular pedestrians, we hear a man walked five miles to the barracks at Ottawa, the other Sunday morning, and the same day a lass covered seven miles for the same purpose at Oshawa.

A man fell down dead on the stairs of the Niagara barracks as he was leaving the meeting the other day. Aged many others left who have still a chance of surviving, they are sure to be in the "Cry" soon.

We have received a copy of the new Danish "War Cry" "Nigraabek" contains a beautiful picture of a man carrying a banner, and a picture of a man carrying a banner.

The Dutch Cry "De Hilde Solan" is also a grand book, and contains a beautiful picture of a man carrying a banner, and a picture of a man carrying a banner.

An Officer says, "I had a very strange struggle while at—, being very much tempted to give in, but the song 'Go on, go on to victory,' brought me round. We hope to see the man in the 'Cry' soon."

Major Vint has no permit to hold public meetings in Montreal, but a spite of that and other difficulties, he reports good meetings—soldiers and soldiers helping him to push the work, Hallelujah!

A Montrealian writes— "We were returning from an Officers' Meeting, when a gentleman in a uniform began talking about our barracks, and said he did not believe in our doing so much of it, especially of such people. He said he believed in raising his hand for soldiers, and we were all very much pleased."

"We had a very good meeting at the barracks, and we were all very much pleased. The barracks is going up nicely, and Captain Fletcher carries the land beautifully. He finds it is good exercise this warm weather, and keeps him from getting sick."

Jesus Leads Me

THINK—"Salvation Belongeth to the Lord."

Jesus leads me, I will follow, Though I may not see my way. Yet with His dear hands to guide me, I will follow, come what may.

He leads me, He leads me, My Saviour leads me, He leads me, He leads me, My Saviour leads me.

He may lead me in the shadow, And my way may seem dark and dim, Yet I know 'tis He who leads me, And I will never lose him.

Oh how sweet to know that Jesus leads me, And in every trying hour, With His grace and power is near.

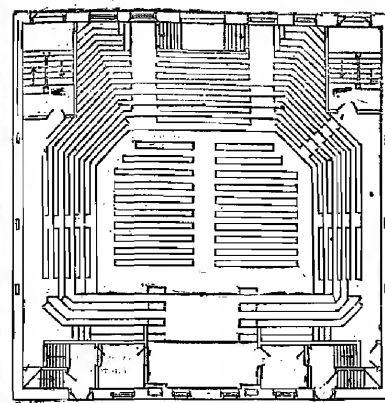

Though our friends depart and forsake us, Jesus' love can ne'er grow old, Or His love so great so changeless, Half the depth has not been told.

Oh I'm sure that Jesus guides me, And He'll ever lead me on, And so long as Jesus leads me, I will follow, follow on.

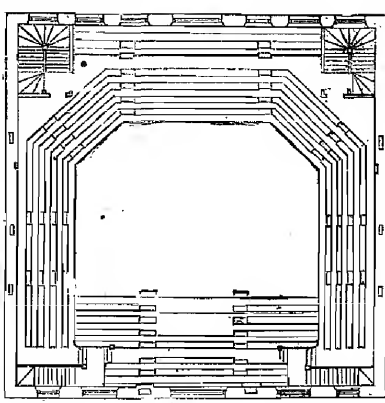

Not better blessed or loved: Content to share our lot with Those Jesus leads us to and from.

B.B.O.

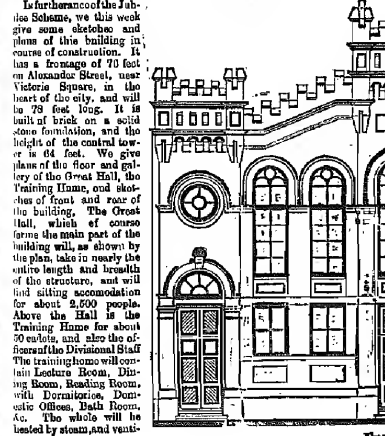

Our Jubilee Scheme—Montreal Temple and Training Home.

Great Hall—Ground Floor

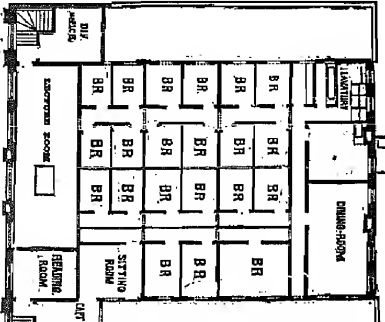

Gallery Plan

Front View

Rear View

Training Home Floor

lated by an entirely new and approved system.

It will be seen that the building will be adequate for the immense work of which it is the instrument, and in every way worthy of the work to be accomplished and the city to which it is dedicated. Building operations are being vigorously pushed forward, but, of course, its progress entirely depends upon the means provided.

The sum required for this, and the rebuilding of Richmond street barracks is $325,000 to be provided for by the Jubilee Offerings of our soldiers and friends, in sums varying from $250 to $500, which will be mainly taken up on our Jubilee Sunday, July 2nd. Our officers in every station have circulated letters and slips for offerings for which please apply, if you have not received one, either at the barracks during meetings or of the officer or soldier from whom you get your War Cry. Or send your donation direct to T. B. Goome, Commissioner, the Temple, Albert St., Toronto.

DIVISIONAL REPORT

TORONTO

TEMPLE CORPS.—Capt. Brien. Ten thousand Hallelujahs again and again for the wonderful manifestation of the presence of God in our midst. Victory is our motto, and filled with the propelling power of the Holy Ghost, we are confident of success. Souls are being saved in nearly every meeting. Soldiers are being inspired by the great Jehovah, and a mighty endeavor is being made to overthrow the kingdom of sin in this city. Our brigades are working grand, souls are getting saved to the open air. Instead of proceeding salvation in one street we now preach it in six at a time. Saturday night a dozen ministers took part in our meeting, and said he had seen the working of the Army in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, and was glad when he came to us. I have preached for the Army, said he, and I will preach again. God bless them, and everybody said Amen! At the close three songs, except salvation. On Sunday we marched behind our new colors for the first time, and we felt like fighting because then till we find and thus go down home above. Hallelujah meeting was grand; one dear sister got set free and said if it costs me my life I will be true to God. In the afternoon Christians took part and they all said go ahead Salvation Army and we will help you. Again four more souls came to us. Night's meeting was the crowning one. Jesus does answer prayer was the song for the evening, and everyone was held out to God for souls. Mr. Goodrich and another gentleman spoke with much power. Capt. Wood forewarned for the hold up, and as the invitation was given people got up from all over the building and volunteered out for God, and we counted 21 men and women crying to God for mercy. 26 for the day and 24 for the week. To God be all the glory.

MORSEMON ST.—Capt. Sharpe. Glory to God! This morning finds us well served and more determined than ever to fight the battle through and through to the city of refuge, which is Jesus our Saviour. We are marching on to victory in the strength of our King, and we are sure to have the victory. Last week has been a week of victory to our souls as we stood before the people and told them the simple story of the Cross, the words thought spoken in meekness, we backed home to the hearts of the sinners with convicting power by the Holy Ghost, and we saw twenty come to the Great Physician, and like our Saviour, He saved them and sent them on their way rejoicing.

LIPPINCOTT ST.—Capt. Woodgate. I am glad and thankful to God to say that since we reported last we have had some real grand times. Hundreds of sinners have been saved, and the Christians have done their duty. But still we must fight better for God and His Kingdom, for the salvation of many poor sinners. Our armaments are small for the multitude of visitors who come to hear. If we could get some help from outside I believe we would be able to go to work and build up and larger barracks. Who will make the beginning? The plan is to get the sinners saved from sin and destruction. But still much more has to be done.

LAMBTON.—Capt. Eubank. Having orders to go to Lambton for Sunday meetings with a Sergeant from Lippincott Street Corps, we went to the battle, accompanied by the Holy Spirit and relying on God for a time of victory. Meaning words was good as we went from and to and of the village proclaiming special meetings and Jesus our Saviour as a special attraction for the day, who was then on his way offering a special invitation to sinners to come and accept His mercy. Holiness meetings, a time of power, and a desire to realize that Jesus was a real and mighty deliverer from all sin. Though none offered themselves for cleansing, we could see. We felt the Holy Spirit used our words to them. Afternoon meeting was a free in the Lord sort of time, and I am sure of these Lambton soldiers to not yield the palm to any corps for readiness to come to the front with their testimony to the saving power of Christ. The Sergeant from Lippincott went in with aaving, and got quite refreshing with his favorite song, "Sing, oh sing of my Redeemer" as a solo, and then spoke with power while I closed with an invitation to the many, but no one came out then. Now I cannot say it in my heart to mind the open-air meeting at half past six where the people seemed so interested, that after a few minutes standing on their toes, they went in and fetched chairs and stools so they might listen to the service. Indie meeting was a time of most intense interest and conviction. I saw, sure. The Rev. Mr. Cook gave us a reading, and after some few experiences we leave the people to decide. In the afternoon we had a very interesting meeting, we find much hardness, and we leave them to God, hoping that they will seek His power and be saved.

URBRIDGE.—Capt. Creech. The Lord is still working in our midst in spite of our great enemy, which would like to keep our work. We are proving day by day more of the blessed presence contained in the precious word. After six and a half months I have returned to faraway. Sunday meetings were times of power and blessing to our souls from the breakfast till the close of the day. At night I spoke to the dear people for perhaps the last time this side of eternity. I could see conviction pictured on many faces, and one dear man came to the front. We can rejoice to know that there are so many of our comrades who are ready to meet us on the other side of Jordan, and are praying for those who are not ready. Dear comrades, let us fight bravely till the Master says it is enough come to Him. Lay down the armor and take the crown. We will tell Jesus calls and then be go-bred home.

OBHAWA.—Capt. Gage. Since our last report the fighting has been hard and severe. Many sharp engagements with the enemy, but the enemy has been driven back and our God has kept the words thought spoken in meekness, we backed home to the hearts of the sinners with convicting power by the Holy Ghost, and we saw twenty come to the Great Physician, and like our Saviour, He saved them and sent them on their way rejoicing.

OVERSEEN.—Capt. Hoag. Hallelujah! Jesus shall reign, the war is on. I am glad to say that we have had some real grand times. Hundreds of sinners have been saved, and the Christians have done their duty. But still we must fight better for God and His Kingdom, for the salvation of many poor sinners. Our armaments are small for the multitude of visitors who come to hear. If we could get some help from outside I believe we would be able to go to work and build up and larger barracks. Who will make the beginning? The plan is to get the sinners saved from sin and destruction. But still much more has to be done.

WILLIAM.—Capt. Mayes. We are glad this morning to be able to report victory. This week has been a blessed time for us. Open-air meetings at night has been a grand success. People flock around to hear of Jesus

WHITEY.—Capt. Topham. Took charge here on the 2nd and have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

SUTTON.—Capt. Mulgo. Every thing is still booming here. The power of God is shaking the people, the soldiers are feeling stronger in their souls. One old lady, (a soldier's wife) to me, started on a six mile walk to meeting, but her strength failed her on the way. Feeling very much to go to the barracks she got down on her knees in a swamp and asked God to give her strength. She heard her prayer and she proceeded on her way quite refreshed. During the past week six souls have been brought to God, and six more are believing that there will be more coming yet.

NEWCASTLE.—Lieut. Mitchell. Hallelujah! Well saved and kicking, laughing and feel just as comfortable here in Newcastle as a bird in a tree. As an Irishman was speaking the other night in the meeting some words he must follow was making a mistake in the lack of the lack, the Irishman started speaking all at once and said: "If you fellows would get off in the heart of the night and fight for Jesus, I would like to see you." They were a little quiet after that. Prisco God our poor outcast Jesus, a Saviour that save to the uttermost.

HAMILTON

HAGERSVILLE.—Capt. Miller. Since our report in this paper we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

BOWAN.—Capt. New. Victory through the blood is still our cry. Another week's fighting for King Jesus against the world, flesh, and the devil. Our meetings are still good. The Lord Himself has been our leader. Two more precious souls have been to the front of Jesus and professed to be saved, over which we as well as the angels rejoiced. We are eager for and determined to win some more for the Master.

OVERSEEN.—Capt. Hoag. Hallelujah! Jesus shall reign, the war is on. I am glad to say that we have had some real grand times. Hundreds of sinners have been saved, and the Christians have done their duty. But still we must fight better for God and His Kingdom, for the salvation of many poor sinners. Our armaments are small for the multitude of visitors who come to hear. If we could get some help from outside I believe we would be able to go to work and build up and larger barracks. Who will make the beginning? The plan is to get the sinners saved from sin and destruction. But still much more has to be done.

WILLIAM.—Capt. Mayes. We are glad this morning to be able to report victory. This week has been a blessed time for us. Open-air meetings at night has been a grand success. People flock around to hear of Jesus love and saving power. Spoke at Lambton. A change takes will spread. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

DUNVILLE.—Lieut. Campbell. This place is still booming, and that God has been working in the hearts of the people. They are feeling stronger in their souls. One old lady, (a soldier's wife) to me, started on a six mile walk to meeting, but her strength failed her on the way. Feeling very much to go to the barracks she got down on her knees in a swamp and asked God to give her strength. She heard her prayer and she proceeded on her way quite refreshed. During the past week six souls have been brought to God, and six more are believing that there will be more coming yet.

PT. COLEBORNE.—Capt. This place is still booming, and that God has been working in the hearts of the people. They are feeling stronger in their souls. One old lady, (a soldier's wife) to me, started on a six mile walk to meeting, but her strength failed her on the way. Feeling very much to go to the barracks she got down on her knees in a swamp and asked God to give her strength. She heard her prayer and she proceeded on her way quite refreshed. During the past week six souls have been brought to God, and six more are believing that there will be more coming yet.

SIMCOE.—Capt. Syre. We are still going strong in this city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

LONDON

PETROLIA.—Capt. Spence. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WYOMING.—Captain Cross. We arrived here last Thursday and set out by a lot of blood and fire. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

GLENCOR.—Capt. Goffey. I have been a busy man. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

OVERSEEN.—Capt. Hoag. Hallelujah! Jesus shall reign, the war is on. I am glad to say that we have had some real grand times. Hundreds of sinners have been saved, and the Christians have done their duty. But still we must fight better for God and His Kingdom, for the salvation of many poor sinners. Our armaments are small for the multitude of visitors who come to hear. If we could get some help from outside I believe we would be able to go to work and build up and larger barracks. Who will make the beginning? The plan is to get the sinners saved from sin and destruction. But still much more has to be done.

WILLIAM.—Capt. Mayes. We are glad this morning to be able to report victory. This week has been a blessed time for us. Open-air meetings at night has been a grand success. People flock around to hear of Jesus STRATHROY.—Capt. Matthews. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

THOROLD.—Capt. Telf. Though we cannot report any great success, there has been a steady stream of conversions. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

BAFFORT.—Capt. Lydgate. The past week has been one of blessing to our souls. We have had good meetings and a steady stream of conversions. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

BRISSELLE.—Capt. Cooke. I am glad to say that we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

ST. THOMAS.—Capt. Dueson. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WOODSTOCK

GUELPH.—Capt. Oughton. No. 1. I have been a busy man. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

wherever he has found peace and rest. He has been a busy man. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

NORWICH.—Capt. Cooke. I arrived here on the third, and found a band of soldiers willing to do anything for Jesus. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

PIATTVILLE.—Capt. McDowell. Uplifted by divine power, we will go for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

BRISSELLE.—Capt. Cooke. I am glad to say that we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

ST. THOMAS.—Capt. Dueson. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WALLACEBURG.—Capt. Savage. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

PIATTVILLE.—Capt. McDowell. Uplifted by divine power, we will go for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

BRISSELLE.—Capt. Cooke. I am glad to say that we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

ST. THOMAS.—Capt. Dueson. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

on this point. He has been a busy man. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

PIATTVILLE.—Capt. McDowell. Uplifted by divine power, we will go for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

BRISSELLE.—Capt. Cooke. I am glad to say that we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

ST. THOMAS.—Capt. Dueson. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

PIATTVILLE.—Capt. McDowell. Uplifted by divine power, we will go for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

BRISSELLE.—Capt. Cooke. I am glad to say that we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

ST. THOMAS.—Capt. Dueson. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

WINDSOR.—Capt. Madden. Last Monday night we got on our knees in front of the altar and prayed for the souls of the city. Since our report we have had some very good meetings. People seem to be taken up with business and one thing or another that they have no time to think about God and their own souls. May God awaken them up to a sense of their danger and us to a sense of our duty toward them. We feel 14 weeks have lived on the way, and we are going right in the strength of God for victory.

